TYPES OF CERTIFICATION

Please note that the Certificate of Finances must show funding that is accessible to the student immediately. You may not show property, pension, trust funds, etc. In addition, you may not use loans as proof of funding. The Certificate of Finances is valid for six months only.

Personal Savings

Personal savings may be used for all or part of your financial support. Please indicate the name of your bank in the space provided on the Certificate of Finances Form. An official of the bank must attach a current bank balance statement to verify the cash amount you have indicated. If you are relying solely on personal savings, you must show funding for the entire duration of your studies.

Parents and/or Sponsor

If your parents or another sponsor are willing to sponsor all or part of your studies, they must indicate the amount of funds on the Certificate of Finances Form. Your sponsors must have an official of their bank attach a current bank statement to verify the cash amount indicated. This amount must cover a minimum of one year of your estimated program expenses. They must also sign the bottom of the below form.

If you will be sponsored by your home government or an international organization/foundation, indicate the name of the agency and include a letter, signed by an authorized representative detailing the terms of your award. The letter of award should answer the following questions:

1. Will the sponsoring agency pay your tuition and fee expenses?
2. Will the agency provide you with living expenses? If yes, how much?
3. For how long is the sponsorship valid: one year, two years, or renewable until the degree is awarded?
4. Will the sponsors provide you with extra support should your spouse or children accompany you? If yes, how much?

University of Maryland Graduate Assistantship

In some cases, students are awarded graduate assistantship to cover their expenses. These awards are usually awarded before the applicant is fully admitted and may be used to certify support. In this case, the academic department will send a copy of your award letter to the International Education Services Office. It is the applicant's responsibility to notify the academic department of the need for an assistantship. If you will be solely dependent upon an assistantship to support your studies please write this on the form below. Please be aware that if you are not awarded an assistantship, you will not be admitted to the program until you show other sources of funding.

Other

You may have other sources of income. Please note that these sources must be cash sources and accompanied by a certified letter and bank statement indicating the amount to be supplied. If funding will come from a citizen or permanent resident of the U.S., that sponsor must complete an Affidavit of Support I-134 from which can be found at www.international.umd.edu/ies or at www.uscis.gov.
